June, 2023 Issue

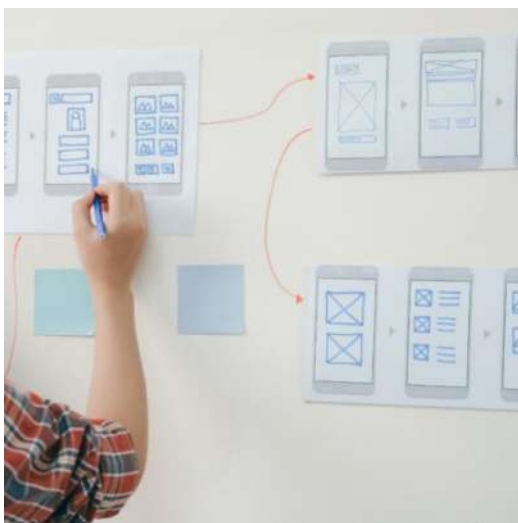

Greetings from Dhwani's Monthly Newsletter!

June was a monumental month for all of us at Dhwani. We expanded our horizons with new office floor, successful service deliveries, Eid celebrations and substantial digital transformations. Sharing exciting updates, highlights and everything that unfolded at Dhwani RIS

#Tech4Good: Highlights from June'23

Office Expansion | Another Floor

We are thrilled to share a significant milestone in Dhwani's growth. We expanded our office with another floor increasing the capacity by more than 100 work desks. This office floor expansion reflects our commitment to digitally transforming the social sector and creating a conducive work environment for our employees.

UI/UX: How can Non-Profits benefit from it
 Relevance of UI/UX has been growing exponentially. Dhwani and its in house UI/UX design team has collated a very informative blog for Nonprofits and the development sector to leverage massively via utilising UI/UX principles for creating positive and impactful digital presence, effectively engage their target audience, and ultimately advance their mission.
